HOW YOUR SUPPORT GIVES VOICE TO OUR LEGAL AID CLIENTS

COME CELEBRATE A REFUGEE HERO IN OUR COMMUNITY

Mr. A served as an interpreter for the U.S. military and other U.S. government agencies in Afghanistan. His support for our country in the Afghan war and service in his country's military created a credible risk that Mr. A and his family would be killed by the Taliban following the collapse of the Afghan government. Given the abrupt U.S. evacuation, Mr. A had to leave Afghanistan without his wife and three young children (an infant and a five and seven-year-old). Fortunately, he and his family arrived safely in the United States. Our Immigration Program secured lawful immigration status for them. Come to the Voices For Justice Celebration to hear this heroic story in his own words.

COME CELEBRATE PRO BONO AND CLIENT HEROES

The Voices For Justice Celebration also will feature the heroism of a twenty-four (24) year old, active Army National Guard reservist who, with the help of our Child Advocacy Program, and his pro bono attorney, Linda Inscoe, obtained guardianship of his younger sister to keep her out of foster care. Come to our luncheon to hear this heroic story and the steps the pro bono attorney took to keep these siblings together.

COME CELEBRATE TWO WASHOE COUNTY EMPLOYEE HEROES

NNLA will recognize Valerie Welsh and Steve Jachimowicz from the county's Independent Living Program, for their tireless advocacy for teen foster children in Washoe County. Come hear how these employees and our Child Advocacy Program worked together to resolve a recent challenge posed by the interpretation of AB350 (the independent living program created by statute in NRS 432B.591 through NRS 432B.595) to best protect these vulnerable youth.
